A WORD FROM CARDINAL DOLAN

Dear friends in the Lord:

This Sunday we will celebrate the beautiful feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi, where in a special way we honor the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist. Allow me to tell you about a series that may shed light on this incredible mystery of our faith and make Mass even more meaningful: Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist, available on FORMED.org.

It just so happens that this year Corpus Christi is celebrated the week after Memorial Day, when we all remember and honor the sacrifices made by those who gave their lives in service to our beloved country. On Memorial Day, we remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice. Each Sunday, at Mass, we also remember that Jesus, on the night before He died for us, gave us the gift of the Eucharist to nourish and strengthen us. As important as that memory is, there is something even greater: we have the opportunity to receive the very presence of Jesus in Holy Communion.

You might have heard that the Church describes the Eucharist as the “source and summit” of the Christian life. Have you ever wondered what that really means? Do you want to deepen your experience of God’s presence when you receive Him at Mass? As we prepare to celebrate Corpus Christi, I invite you to view Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist, a new three-part series available on the website FORMED.org. Thousands of Catholics across the archdiocese are currently using FORMED.org, which has movies, books, bible studies and programs for Catholics of all ages. In this newest series, Presence seeks to answer a question that is simple, yet incredibly important: What is so special about the Eucharist?

Many parishioners in the archdiocese have already begun watching Presence, and the response has been overwhelmingly positive. If you have not yet signed up, don’t worry! All you need to do is send an email to formed@archny.org with the name of your parish and you will receive assistance. Hopefully, you will take this opportunity to grow in understanding just how much God loves you, and how His loving presence is available to you in such a special way at each and every Mass.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)
SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

Moses explained to the people the commandments he had received from God. Upon hearing them, the entire community immediately agreed they would do as God had told them. Moses then sacrificed young bulls and sprinkled the people with their blood, calling it the blood of the covenant they had made.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Jesus did not offer God the blood of sacrifices, but instead he offered up his own blood to cleanse all people of the transgressions they had committed under the first covenant with God. Christ instead brought a new covenant, which, if kept, would lead to eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sent two of his disciples to prepare the Passover supper. During the meal he blessed bread and offered it to them saying, "This is my body." He then offered them wine and called it his blood, "the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many."

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ
June 03, 2018

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is My body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'This is My blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.' Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives."

Although we may remember many moments in the life of Jesus, His words, His teaching, His miracles, His compassion for the needy and the poor, they have greater meaning when we consider what occurred in the upper room. We know the details of the supper recalling the Passover of the people of Israel. But all this changed as the meal drew to a close. Did those gathered understand the significance of taking, blessing, thanking and giving, not just the contents on the plate or in the cup, but the one who was giving Himself?

We who share in the gift of the Eucharist, reflect on His desire to stay with us in such a special way. We are privileged to take the gift as we say 'Amen'. We approach the gift with reverence, we receive communion with deep faith, offer our own Eucharist, our thanks, and then bring Him with us. When I pass the tabernacle where the sacrament is reserved, I pause and thank Jesus that what He did was for me and all today.
